Table 1. Maternal organ weights and plasma glucose and IGF-1 concentrations.

Data are presented as mean ± SEM. There are no significant differences across any of the treatment groups.

Table 2. Fetal and Placental Measurements.

Data are presented as mean ± SEM. N = number of litters per group. There are no significant differences across any of the treatment groups. *Number of reabsorbed embryos/total number of embryos each group.